NEWS RELEASE

Feedback Wanted on APFO Ordinance That Assesses Growth Capacity in City

FREDERICK, MD – Feb. 27, 2019: Public opinion is welcome as the Board of Aldermen are reviewing the adequate public facilities ordinance (APFO), which determines what improvements are needed to ensure that the public facilities that serve new development are adequate.

Public opinion about the APFO is welcome at several workshops and online. A schedule, ordinance details and an online comment form are on the City website:

<https://www.cityoffrederick.com/apfo>.

When City staff and officials review applications for new construction, it is the APFO that ensures the availability of public services, including water and sewer infrastructure, roads and schools.
