

Nominations Open for Frederick County Best Places to Work Awards

Theme for 2019 is "Who's Having Fun?!"

Frederick, MD – Nominations are open for the Frederick County Best Places to Work Awards. Any Frederick County business may be nominated by completing a four-question online nomination form. Following each nomination, additional information will be requested from the company's Human Resources Department or Senior Leadership. Nominations and subsequent required information will be accepted April 1 through April 30, 2019. Winners will be announced at the annual Frederick County Best Places to Work Awards ceremony and reception on July 30, 2019.

Companies are evaluated on a variety of criteria, including employee compensation and benefits, business culture, human resource metrics, and special employee engagement programs. Applicants are encouraged to coordinate with their Human Resources Manager or other leadership staff to ensure the application has all of the relevant and up-to-date requested data included. Only one nomination form per company is needed.

Winners are awarded in the following primary categories: Small Employer (1-10 employees), Medium Employer (11-29 and 30-50 employees), Large Employer (51-200 employees), and Major Employer (200+ employees). Beyond the five major category winners, certain nominations may be singled out in a short video snippet showcasing companies that go above and beyond to incorporate fun into the workday.
