NEWS RELEASE

Coffee with Aldermen MacShane & Wilson at Dublin Roasters

FREDERICK, MD – March 12, 2018: Aldermen Ben MacShane and Roger Wilson are looking to talk to constituents about issues that matter to them over a hot cup of coffee. The two new aldermen have scheduled an informal event at Dublin Roasters Coffee, 1780 N. Market St. on March 24 from 10 a.m. to noon, and all are welcome.

“We all want City government to be more accessible and responsive,” Wilson said. “So Ben and I are hoping to have some good conversations with city residents and get their thoughts on what matters most to them.”

Aldermen Wilson and MacShane are hoping to start scheduling these events regularly, to give residents as many opportunities to speak with them as possible. “We hope this will make getting in touch with elected officials less complicated, and more informal,” MacShane said. “We work for the citizens, and if we can make it easier for them to be heard, we should.”

At City Hall, Alderman MacShane may be reached at bmacshane@cityoffrederick.com, 301-600-1386, and Alderman Wilson at rwilson@cityoffrederick.com, 301-600-1632. For further information about upcoming events like this one, or other opportunities to talk to the mayor or aldermen, contact Pam Stocksdales, Mayor’s Office manager, 301-600-1184.
