

NEWS RELEASE

Historic Preservation Efforts Earn Honors

FREDERICK, MD – May 4, 2018: May 3, outstanding preservation efforts throughout The City of Frederick were honored by Mayor Michael O'Connor, the Board of Aldermen and the Historic Preservation Commission. Awards were given to the following dedicated individuals and organizations:

Three projects were recognized in the category of Bricks and Mortar Rehabilitation for superlative restoration and rehabilitation work:

- Jane, Geb, and Hank Byron for 47 S. Carroll St.
- Murphy Properties II, LLC for 20 W. Fourth St.
- Richard and Judith Harkins with Dorcus Construction for 103 Record St.

The Craftsmanship award went to Mitchel Brown for demonstrating an understanding of and effective professional practice in working with historic buildings and sites.

Frederick County Government- Division of Parks & Recreation received the Public Stewardship award for exemplary maintenance of and workmanship at Rose Hill Manor Park & Museum.

Gregory Campbell and Thomas Francis received the Private Stewardship award for exemplary maintenance of and workmanship at the Gaslight House, 118 E. Church St.

Photographs of the award-winning projects will be posted on the HPC's Facebook page www.facebook.com/cityoffrederickhpc.

For more information, contact the Planning Department, at 301-600-1499.

###