Human Rights Campaign Gives City 100 Score

FREDERICK, MD –Oct. 8, 2018: Mayor Michael O'Connor is pleased to announce that The City of Frederick scored 100 on the latest Human Rights Campaign Municipal Equality Index \(MEI\).

The Human Rights Campaign released its findings today, measuring standards for workplace and public policies citywide. The full report is online. The MEI scored city leadership, and policies affecting employment, housing, public accommodations and public safety.

This is the second time the City has achieved a 100 on the MEI, last year being the first.

“This ranking is an important measure, and I’m pleased for our City to be recognized,” O’Connor said. “Still, we won’t rest in our effort to be as diverse and inclusive as possible, in and outside the workplace.”

Questions about the MEI should be directed to: press@hrc.org.
