Mayor Michael O'Connor thanks the people who were able to attend the Strategic Plan open house that occurred from noon to 8 p.m. on July 16. O'Connor and Chief Administrative Officer Marc DeOcampo appreciated the comments and views that were shared during the event, and they invite the public to review the draft strategic objectives and action items online and comment via email to the Mayor's Office: dkellizy@cityoffrederick.com.

The draft Strategic Plan has evolved based on input from the community and collaboration among City staff and the Mayor. The Strategic Plan will guide improvements to the City over the next 10 years. It will be used to direct budgeting, set priorities for City government, and assign actions to specific City departments.

"We are preparing a plan guided by what we've heard from the community are their highest priorities," O'Connor said.

A final staff draft of the Strategic Plan 2030 will be presented for public consideration and review by the Board of Aldermen. The final plan will be adopted by the Board of Aldermen.

To stay informed and offer ideas, check the City website and sign up for announcements.
