NEWS RELEASE

Kris Kringle Procession to Showcase Holiday Spirit, Talent

Temporary Road Closures Scheduled to Make Way

FREDERICK, MD – Dec. 4, 2017: The Annual Kris Kringle Procession of holiday characters, musicians and dancers will start winding its way through the streets of Downtown Frederick at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 8.

The procession starts at the corner of South Carroll and East Patrick streets in Frederick and ends in Baker Park with the lighting of the City Tree.

The procession will feature local talent, friends and family members, and mirrors the small-town charm that characterizes Frederick, especially during the holidays. Local children dressed as reindeer, snowflakes, angels, elves, and gifts will accompany costumed characters, some modern, some traditional, through Frederick's downtown streets.

To accommodate the parade, some streets will be closed for a time. A map of the route is online <https://tinyurl.com/y7so8klr>.
