New Opportunity to Meet with the Mayor

Mayor Michael O'Connor Invites Public to Informal Q&A Sessions

FREDERICK, MD – Feb. 23, 2018: Keeping his commitment to expand civic engagement, Mayor Michael O'Connor is creating a new opportunity for the public to communicate with City Hall.

Each month, at locations around the City, informal Q&A sessions will be scheduled so that the public may find the mayor at their convenience, without having to come to City Hall.

The first opportunity will be 7:30-9 a.m., March 9 at the Waffle House, 317 S. Jefferson St. The public is invited to stop by to chat. No appointment is necessary.

“This is just an addition to my schedule I’m making to try to help the public feel heard by City Hall,” O’Connor said. “I’ve sensed some frustration in the community about how City Hall listens and responds, and if I can do anything to change that, I will.”

“I hope during these opportunities, people will find me accessible, and feel free to suggest other ways to get involved in what goes on in our city.”

For further information about the upcoming sessions, and other opportunities to talk to O’Connor, contact Pam Stocksdales, Mayor’s Office manager, 301-600-1184.
